2. One (1) Manager and two (2) Coaches permitted. Coaches may not interfere with a play in progress.
3. Only the Team Manager may confer with the umpire
4. Coaches may not interfere with a play in progress.
5. Base coaches shall be situated in foul territory within the base coach's box when their team is on offense. Coaches must vacate the box to provide ample room for a fielder attempting to field a batter or thrown ball.
6. When not in the coach's box, managers and coaches shall remain in the dugout.
7. Base coaches, other than the team manager, may not confer with an umpire regarding any on-field ruling.

General Rules

1. ONE (1) Umpire shall be provided.
2. Infield Fly Rules is in effect.
3. Lead-offs and stealing of bases are allowed, only on a live ball.
4. Any part of the pitcher's undershirt or t-shirt exposed to view shall be of a solid color. The pitcher's undershirt sleeves, if exposed, shall not be white or gray. Neoprene sleeves, if worn by a pitcher, must be solid color and can not be white or gray.

5. A runner can continue advancing until either tagged out or he/she reaches a base safely and stops.
6. Runners may advance on any batted ball in fair territory, at their own risk.
7. The batter is out for illegal action when hitting the ball with one or both feet on the ground entirely outside the batter's box.
8. If there is a play at any base the runner must slide.
9. Protests are permitted, through the Team Manager only.
10. On deck batters are permitted on the off side.
11. If the runner is not advancing, the umpire will call time once the pitcher has the ball and at least one foot in contact within the pitching circle.
12. Stalling, as determined by the umpire, by manager or coach is subject to ejection. The umpire will first warn the person involved, and if the practice continues, the umpire shall eject the person involved. The umpire may also stop the elapsed time until play resumes in a normal fashion if he/she desires.
13. The batter is out for illegal action when hitting the ball with one or both feet on the ground entirely outside the batter's box. The runner is considered out if the batter fails to make a reasonable effort to vacate a congested area when there is a throw or play at home plate and there is time for the batter to move away.
14. Offensive interference is an act by a member of the team at bat which interferes with, obstructs, impedes, hinder or confuses any fielder attempting to make a play. If the umpire declares the batter or a base-runner out for interference, all other runners shall return to the last base that was in judgment of the umpire, legally touched at the time of the interference.
15. Bunting is allowed. Any foul bunt with (2) strikes shall be treated as a strikeout (no runners may advance).
16. Pitcher will be allowed a maximum of (8) eight warm-up pitches or (1) one minute between innings. If a sudden emergency causes a pitcher to be summoned into the game without any opportunity to warm-up, the umpire shall allow the pitcher to as many pitches as the umpire deems necessary. Rule 8.03
17. Running on a dropped 3rd strike is allowed

Number of Players

Teams must start with a minimum of SEVEN (7) players and maintain a minimum of SEVEN (7) players for the duration of the game.

Lineups and Minimum Play

1. Teams shall bat a continuous batting order.
 - A batter removed, after game time has begun from the lineup due to injury, illness, disciplinary, or any other just reason shall simply be skipped in the lineup without penalty (no out recorded).
 - Players that arrive late to the game may be added to the lineup at the end of the batting order.
2. Players present at the start of the current game and not starting on defense must start on defense the next game if present at the start of the game.
3. A player may not sit the bench for two consecutive defensive innings.

Defensive Players

1. Infield: traditional infield (six [6] infielders – P, C, 1B, 2B, 3B, SS). No defensive player may take a position closer than the pitcher to the batter. For purposes of this rule, the distance between home plate and the pitcher's plate shall be used as a radius to project an infield "arc," from the axis at home plate between the foul lines.
2. Outfield: Three (3) outfielders (LF, C, RF) may be positioned no closer to the infield than midway between the back of the infield and the outfield fence and may not cross that line until the ball is put in play. Outfielders may not tag out any base runner nor touch any base to make a force out.
3. Throwing the ball: Defensive players may not "roll" or "bowl" the ball to another defensive player in an attempt to put-out a runner or batter-runner in lieu of the natural and commonly accepted over-hand throwing mechanics associated with the game of baseball.

Run Rules and Limits

1. There will be a five (5) run limit per inning through the first five (5) innings, top of the sixth (6th) inning there is an unlimited number of runs.
2. The 15 run rule after 2 ½ if home team is ahead 3 innings if visiting team is ahead, and/or the 10 run rule after 3 ½ innings if home team is ahead and 4 innings if visiting team is ahead, shall be enforced.

Ejections

1. Any manager, coach, player, or spectator ejected from a game must leave the game site immediately, this includes the parking lot for the duration of the game. They may not sit in the stands or be recalled.
2. Any ejected manager, coach, player or spectator may neither be present for his/her team's next physically played game, including pre- and post-game activities, nor are they allowed to be in the parking lot except for dropping off/picking up players.
3. A manager or coach ejected from the game may not be replaced by another volunteer in the same game in which the ejection occurred.
 - Exception: one (1) adult must remain in the dugout at all times. If all adults have been ejected from the field of play, the game will be stopped and considered a forfeit by the team whose coaches have been ejected.
4. The team may provide other eligible volunteers to fulfill managing or coaching duties at the next scheduled game when a coach or manager is serving his/her additional game suspension, provided they have had their background checks completed by CLL, and have been issued a badge confirming this.

Activities Per Week

1. Teams may participate in a maximum of THREE (3) activities per week. This includes going to the batting cages. No activity should exceed one (1) hour and thirty (30) minutes.

Penalty - If a manager or coach is found to be participating in more than 3 activities per week he/she will be suspended for 1 game on the first offense.

2. A team activity is defined as three (3) or more players from the same team getting together with a coach or manager within a twenty-four (24) hour period.
